

David Sperry's Answers to 3Q's
(Personal GOALS, OBSTACLES and WAYS to assist me in supporting you)

1. What are my three most important life goals?

- a) *Better support my wife, marriage and family in ways that will inspire and assist them in becoming sustainably unified in their diversity, happy and contributing members of their respective communities (especially since my wife's 12/2/12 accident, in which as a pedestrian in an Atlanta parking lot, she was hit and run over by a van).
- b) *Become more resourceful, competent and disciplined at both personal and collective triage of crisis and overwhelming situations so that I and we can get more done in less time, with less wasted resources than most, if not all other responders to similar situations.
- c) *To leave a legacy of being a catalyst for learning focused community development in ways that contribute to the sustainable unity, peace and happiness of the communities with which I am associated, especially direct supporters of people with disabilities (primarily those who have a desire to transcend the limitations of their disabilities), and to assist, coach and mentor others in doing the same.

2. What are the three greatest obstacles to achieving those goals?

- a) *An insufficiently developed collaborative network and knowledge base necessary to excel at being a catalyst for highly effective, personal and organizational development; a situation which I am striving to remedy, through asking you and others the 3Q's.
- b) *Lack of sufficient technology accelerators and multiple media presentation capacity to have the impact I can envision; a situation which I am striving to remedy through consultation with current management; collaboration with people, businesses and institutions who have those resources, and pursuing learning opportunities to enable me to better utilize resources available.
- c) *Extremely limited risk capital (both time and money); a situation which I am striving to remedy ASAP (within the context of my three most important life goals).

3. What three questions would help determine if someone could assist you in achieving my most important goals or transcending the my greatest obstacles?

- a) Are you willing to explore the possibility that you could gain significant benefit from helping me achieve my goals?
- b) Do you have a vested interest or priority for achieving goals integrally related to my goals?
- c) Would you be willing to help me get in touch with people who would likely answer “Yes” to the above two questions?
